OF INTEREST:

2015 Fall Issue of Connect

The fall issue of Connect is now available. Get ready for some good reading as we share the stories of eight local veterans, and Temple City's advocacy group. Also included in the issue is our full recreation guide. Classes begin September 21.

Community Development Department Monthly Building Permit and Customer Activity

Attached is the Community Development Department Monthly Update for August 2015 showing building permits issued and number of customers served in August. Building permit activity and fees collected are up substantially this year over last year, due largely to the ongoing construction of the Linden Walk residential project on Lower Azusa Avenue. The number of customers served at the public counters is up slightly over last year.

Planning Division Weekly Project Activity

Attached are the Planning Division Weekly updates for the weeks of August 31 and September 7 showing project applications received and business licenses issued. One notable item is a film permit issued to ABC Studios for filming of a television show on September 15-16. The Planning Commission meeting of September 8 was cancelled. The Planning Commission will meet on September 22 to consider a Conditional Use Permit for a restaurant in the Camellia Square shopping center.

Employee Workplace Harassment Training

A Workplace Harassment Training, for all City employees has been scheduled for October 14. This training is an overview of state and federal laws defining inappropriate conduct in the workplace, employer and employee liability, investigation and appropriate action of a harassment claim, as well as prevention of harassment claims.
