REPORTS FROM CITY DEPARTMENTS

MANAGEMENT SERVICES DEPARTMENT

(submitted by B. Haworth)

Chan Joins City Manager's Office

There's a new face in the City Manager's office.

Tinny Chan was recently appointed Management Analyst in the special projects division. A graduate of TCHS and UC Santa Barbara, Tinny was previously a paralegal for the Law Offices of Ray Hsu. In addition to preparing attorneys for trials, hearings and closings, she also liaised with the firm's Chinese clientele. Tinny is fluent in Mandarin, Cantonese and Chiuchow, a dialect of east China.

Assignments already on her "to-do" list: the feasibility of new Chinese-language social media platforms; proposals for enhanced customer service models that better engage Chinese-speaking residents; and visitations with the Las Tunas business community.

Tinny is an avid traveler, with recent visits to Japan and Korea. Her next planned venture is a trek across Iceland.

Final Budget Deliberations, June 21

Council convened last week to discuss the City's proposed $19.8 million budget for the coming year. Among the discussion items:

- Public safety service levels will slightly rise, despite contractual cost increases for animal control and sheriff services.
- Operations, as proposed, are balanced with a General Fund surplus of $60,000.
- Over $7 million in capital improvement projects are planned, including:
  - Completion of the Live Oak Park walking and jogging path.

The City's new independent auditors Vavernik Trine and Day (VTD) completed their interim field work this past week. Four staff members from VTD were on site and worked with the Administrative Services staff. VTD will meet with the Audit Standing Committee on Friday, June 17, 2016 to report their progress this week. Final field work will occur in this fall, with financial statements drafted and presented to the City Council in December or January. There will also be periodic updates to the Audit Committee throughout this fiscal year end process.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

(submitted by M. Forbes, S. Reimers and B. Ariizumi)

Dog Licensing Change

Effective July 1, the San Gabriel Valley Humane Society will begin providing all dog license services for Temple City. This change is part of an ongoing effort to make municipal operations more efficient. Dog licenses must be obtained at the Humane Society located at 851 E. Grand Ave., San Gabriel. The requirements for obtaining a dog license remain unchanged—dogs must be spayed or neutered, must be microchipped, and must have a current rabies vaccination. Existing licenses may be renewed via mail or in person at the Humane Society.

For more information, call (626) 286-1159.

Camellia Square to Open Soon

The Camellia Square shopping center is set to open in July. Three occupants—Summer Rolls, Pokelicious and Tea Station Express—will be the first to commence operations.

Summer Rolls plans to unveil their 2,000 SF eatery within the next few weeks. The “mothership” restaurant will feature their signature Vietnamese rolls and a number of beer taps—including a 300 sq. ft. outdoor beer garden. Pokelicious, offering a popular Hawaiian cuisine of marinated fish, will open soon thereafter as well as Tea Station Express, serving an array of tea and coffee drinks.

The center’s large rear building is scheduled for completion in August.

Updates on the project’s construction and tenant recruitment activities will be provided in subsequent reports.

Monthly Activity Report

Attachment B provides the department’s activity report for May 2016, which details issued permits and customer counts.

CERT Graduates 15 Residents

Last weekend, the City graduated 15 residents in emergency preparedness through its Community Emergency Response Training (CERT) program.

The recent graduates participated in a final exercise, which was a simulated 7.8 magnitude earthquake, causing damage and destruction to a city facility. Participants applied the knowledge and skills learned from their training.

The City has held nine CERT training classes since 2009, graduating 239 from the program. Many have then joined the City’s Advanced CERT Team to provide volunteer services, and to receive additional training opportunities involving traffic and crowd control.

For more information on CERT, email bariizumi@templecity.us or call (626) 285-2171, ext. 4342.

From disco to big band standards, this year's lineup features a lineup of crowd favorites like Raymond Michael and The Wiseguys, as well as fabulous new acts—from country and classic rock to surf and disco. The free concerts run Wednesday nights through August, 7-9 p.m., at Temple City Park.

Also, don't miss out! Purchase a commemorative t-shirt for $8 each while supplies last. Wear it to an upcoming concert and receive a ticket for a raffle prize.

Update: Live Oak Park Walking Path Project

Construction has begun on the new Live Oak Park walking path. Irrigation lines have been relocated, and construction fencing will soon be installed.

During construction, park patrons are reminded to stay clear from construction areas and to comply with all signs and warnings. The park's athletic fields will remain open and accessible from the following locations: near the Community Center entrance; adjacent to the picnic shelters; and at the park's south end. However, there will be a period of time that the fields will be closed for two weeks after the rubberized surfacing has been poured.

Updates will be provided in subsequent reports. Project completion is scheduled for early September.

Discover Your Superpowers at Camp-A-Palooza

Temple City's ultimate family camping experience is coming to Live Oak Park on July 15-16.
