COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

(submitted by S. Reimers, B. Ariizumi, and H. Liu)

Proposed Mixed Use Project

On Sept. 13, the Planning Commission will hold a public hearing on a proposed mixed-use project at 5935-5953 Temple City Blvd. (commonly known as the Alpha Beta site). The development features a four-story building with 61 residential condominiums (totaling 87,936 sq. ft.) and 7,250 sq. ft. of ground floor commercial space. Design plans can be viewed at templecity.us/CurrentProjects.

A detailed analysis of the project will be available for review beginning Friday, Sept. 9 at City Hall and online at templecity.us. For more information, contact Hesty Liu at hliu@templecity.us or call (626) 656-7316, ext. 4314.

Zoning Code, General Plan, and Specific Plan Update

The Planning Commission and General Plan Advisory Committee (GPAC) held a joint meeting on Aug. 30 to kick-off the Zoning Code Update. Both groups provided their goals for the Update; and offered feedback on the City's existing entitlement process and ease of using the Zoning Code.

A complete revamp of the Zoning Code is a rare effort; sections of the Code have not been revised since 1960 (when the City was incorporated). This effort will be closely tied to the current General Plan Update and its proposed specific plan for the area around Rosemead Boulevard and Las Tunas Drive.

A community meeting on the Zoning Code Update is scheduled for January. In the meantime, staff is working to finalize the draft General Plan Update (and associated environmental documentation) by mid-November.

Community Preservation Focus

This year, Community Preservation Officers opened more than 120 cases of overgrown vegetation. A recent visit to each location has resulted in a high level of compliance; only five cases remain open.

Inoperable vehicles will be a community preservation focus for September.

Law Enforcement Update: July 2016

The following provides a summary of trends and activities for July 2016, as reported by Temple Sheriff's Station.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT (submitted by C. Burroughs)

Temple City Bids Farewell to Long-Time Employee

Mike Koski—a well-known figure at Live Oak Park—has retired from the City.

Mike was hired as a coordinator in 1998 to oversee operations of the (then) newly built Live Oak Park Community Center. During his 18-year tenure, he was promoted to Parks and Recreation Supervisor, overseeing the City's community events and recreational programming.

But more importantly, Mike influenced thousands of young men and women to appreciate, and even pursue, the parks and recreation profession. We thank Mike for his many years of service, and congratulate him on a well-earned retirement.

2016 Summer Concert Series

This past Wednesday, summer unofficially ended in Temple City as Fortunate Sun wrapped up this year's 2016 Concerts in the Park series.
