Temple City Mayor Tom Chavez will present the annual State of the City Address on Tuesday, March 6, 6:30 p.m. in the Temple City Council Chambers, 5938 Kauffman Ave.

Entitled "2012: A Year of Growth, Prosperity, and Community Involvement", the mayor's address will discuss upcoming projects for economic development, strategic plans for the next few years, the power of community involvement and the unveiling of a new City-sponsored community program.

"This year's address will focus on the City Council's objective to invest strategically in the City's proposed plans. We want to ensure the community receives the same high-performing services as the people have in the past," said Mayor Chavez. "I plan to speak to the community about the challenges we faced and overcame in 2011 and the goals we hope to accomplish in 2012."

Residents and community members are encouraged to attend. The address will also stream live at www.templecity.kgem.tv and broadcast thereafter on public access channels 3 (Charter Cable) and 99 (AT&T U-Verse).

For more information, call the City's Communications Office at (626) 285-2171, ext. 2324.
